

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES

Several new Sunday School Classes will begin on Sunday, January 8, 2012 and will run for five weeks. Please sign up on the attendance clipboards if you plan to attend. Thank you.

The 5 Love Languages - Of the countless ways we can show love to one another, five key categories, or five love languages, proved to be universal and comprehensive—everyone has a love language, and we all identify primarily with one of the five love languages: Words of Affirmation, Quality Time, Receiving Gifts, Acts of Service, and Physical Touch. The discussion based class will help you to identify practical and powerful ways to express love, simply by using the appropriate love language. By exploring the different love languages, we will discover and learn our personal love language, how to show and build love in our relationship and how to apply our love language in worshipping God.

Facilitators: Cassie Marsh-Caldwell and Heather Tomlinson

Nooma III – NOOMA is a series of short films promoting spiritual perspectives on individual life experiences. Each film is 10 to 14 minutes of teaching related to real-life situations. Each short story covers a specific topic, usually by relating various experiences from a Christian perspective. Each video stands alone, so you can attend one, or attend all five weeks.

Facilitator: Tina McKinley

Enough – This video study features Rev. Adam Hamilton presenting Financial Wisdom from a Faith Perspective. Increasing consumer debt, declines in savings, lower income growth, rising housing costs and a volatile stock market are all contributing to economic insecurity. Simplicity, Generosity and Joy leads participants to examine their own values and habits around wealth, spending, discipline, giving and contentment.

Facilitators: Dan Christopher, Andy Morgan